2-WEEK SCUBA ENGLISH COURSE

€675

- Want to improve your English?
- Want to Dive in the clear Mediterranean sea?
- Want to be able to learn more about Marine life and the Maltese sea?
- How about doing both together?

Join AClass Academy of English's Scuba English Course this summer.

This course is offered at two different levels.

Level 1: Pre-Intermediate and Intermediate students or

Level 2: Upper-Intermediate and Advanced students

The main focus of the course will be on General English (20 lessons* or 15 hours per week). The course will cover vocabulary and grammar with a high focus on speaking and listening skills. Many lessons also will incorporate specific dive terminology to help you as well as lessons on different marine life you will encounter in Malta and the various dive sites around the island.

Should the students wish they can also take a PADI Open Water Diving or Advanced Course which are internationally recognised.

There will be a minimum of 6 dives per week including theory lessons which will be incorporated into the English lessons where possible. This will take around 10 hours per week.

Dives will vary and depend on the experience of the course participants. It is recommended you have at least an Open Water Certificate or incorporate this into the course at a slightly higher price.

There are plenty of different dives. These are negotiable with the dive instructor:

Dives can include:

- navigation dives
- deep dives
- shallow water dives
- wreck dives
- search and recovery dives
- night dives

You will receive 2 Certificates at the end of your stay. One for your English course and the other detailing what theory and practise you covered on your Diving Course.

All course materials and cylinders, weight belt and all other dive equipment as well as transport to and from the dive sites are included in the price per week. PADI certification is optional and is not included in the price. Accommodation is not included in the package price but can be arranged.

*If there are fewer than 3 students you will be given reduced hours. 2 students receive 15 lessons and 1 student receives 10 lessons.
